COLTAF’s Prime Partner Program is an opportunity for financial institutions:

- to showcase their commitment to working with the legal community to meet a critical community need, and
- to receive public recognition for significantly benefiting their communities.

The Colorado Supreme Court requires lawyers to maintain their COLTAF accounts at financial institutions that pay on their COLTAF accounts the highest rate of interest or dividends generally available to its similarly-situated non-COLTAF accounts. COLTAF’s Prime Partners are those financial institutions that go above and beyond those eligibility requirements to actively support COLTAF in its mission to ensure that low-income Coloradans have access to critically-needed legal assistance in civil matters.

Prime Partner Benefits:

- Highlighted on COLTAF’s list of Approved Institutions as a Prime Partner.
- Featured prominently on COLTAF’s website, with an active hyperlink.
- Recognition in the Colorado Bar Association’s monthly publication.
- Prominent listing in COLTAF’s Annual Report.
- Recognition at Colorado Supreme Court’s Pro Bono Recognition Ceremony.
- Prime Partner Certificate for inclusion in packets to prospective customers.
- Periodic Prime Partner updates to Colorado Access to Justice Commission, Legal Aid Foundation of Colorado, and Colorado Bar Association.
- News releases announcing new Prime Partners.

Prime Partner Requirements:

- To enjoy the benefits of the Prime Partner Program, financial institutions must complete a Prime Partner Enrollment Form and agree to pay on all COLTAF deposits a net yield of at least 75% of the Federal Funds Target Rate (as published in the Wall Street Journal on the first day of the month). When the Federal Funds Target Rate is expressed as a range, the rate to be used in determining the leadership threshold is the highest value in the range.
